AMPHILOCHIOS, BISHOP OF ICONIUM

Saint Amphilochius, who was born in Cappadocia, shone forth in asceticism and divine knowledge even from his youth. He was consecrated Bishop of Iconium in 341, he struggled courageously against the blasphemies of Eunomius, Macedonius the enemy of the Holy Spirit, and the followers of Arius. He was present at the Second Ecumenical Council of the 150 Fathers, which took place in Constantinople, convoked during the reign of Theodosius the Great in the year 381. In 383 Amphilochius wished to persuade the Emperor Theodosius to forbid the Arians from gathering in Constantinople and to commit the churches to the Orthodox, but the Emperor was reluctant to do such a thing. The next time that Amphilochius entered the palace, he addressed Theodosius with proper honour, but slighted his young son Arcadius in his presence. Theodosius was indignant, and said the dishonour shown to his son was equally an insult to himself. To this Saint Amphilochius answered that as he would not suffer an insult to his son, so he ought to believe that God is wroth with those who blaspheme His Only-begotten. Saint Theodosius understood and admired Amphilochius' ingenious device, and he issued the desired edict in September of the same year. Saint Amphilochius, having reached deep old age, reposed in peace about the year 395. Saint Basil the Great wrote many letters to Saint Amphilochius, his friend and Fellow champion of the Faith, and at his request wrote his treatise On the Holy Spirit, which besides demonstrating the divinity of the Holy Spirit and His equality with the Father and the Son, defends the Church's unwritten ancient traditions, such as making the sign of the Cross, turning towards the East in prayer, no kneeling on Sunday, and so forth.

HYMNS OF THE DAY

Resurrectional Apolytikion

When the angelic powers appeared at Your grave, the soldiers guarding it feared and became as dead. And standing by the sepulcher was Mary who was seeking Your immaculate body. You devastated Hades, not afflicted by it. You went to meet the virgin, and granted eternal life. You resurrected from the dead. O Lord, glory to You.

For the Forefeast

Today righteous Anna solicits joy for us all, the opposite of pain and sorrow, having brought forth her fruit, the only ever-virgin Maid; and today in fulfillment of her prayer and her promise, to the Temple of the Lord she joyfully leads her who is truly the temple and pure Mother of God the Word.

Apolytikion of Pentecost (for the Holy Trinity)

Blessed are You, O Christ our God, who made fishermen all-wise, sending upon them the Holy Spirit and, through them, netting the world. O Loving One, glory to You.

Apolytikion of the Prophet Elias

The incarnate Angel, the Cornerstone of the Prophets, the second Forerunner of the Coming of Christ, the glorious Elias (Elijah), who from above, sent down to Elisha the grace to dispel sickness and cleanse lepers, abounds therefore in healing for those who honor him.

Kontakion of the Forefest

On this day the whole wide world is filled completely with great joy and merriment on the occasion of the feast of the Theotokos and cries aloud: "She is the heavenly tabernacle indeed."

Ο ΑΠΟΣΤΟΛΟΣ

Προκείμενον:

Σῶσον, Κύριε, τὸν λαόν σου καὶ εὐλόγησον τὴν κληρονομίαν σου.

Στίχος:

Πρὸς σέ, Κύριε, κεκράξομαι, ὁ Θεός μου.

Πρὸς Ἐφεσίους Ἐπιστολῆς Παύλου τὸ ἀνάγνωσμα
(2:4-10)

Ἄδελφοί, ὁ Θεὸς πλούσιος ὦν ἐν ἐλέει, διὰ τὴν πολλὴν ἀγάπην αὐτοῦ ἦν ἠγάπησεν ἡμᾶς, καὶ ὄντας ἡμᾶς νεκροὺς τοῖς παραπτώμασιν συνεζωποίησεν τῷ Χριστῷ· χάριτί ἐστε σεσωσμένοι· καὶ συνήγειρεν καὶ συνεκάθισεν ἐν τοῖς ἐπουρανίοις ἐν Χριστῷ Ἰησοῦ, ἵνα ἐνδείξηται ἐν τοῖς αἰῶσι τοῖς ἐπερχομένοις τὸν ὑπερβάλλοντα πλοῦτον τῆς χάριτος αὐτοῦ ἐν χρηστότητι ἐφ' ἡμᾶς ἐν Χριστῷ Ἰησοῦ. Τῇ γὰρ χάριτί ἐστε σεσωσμένοι διὰ τῆς πίστεως· καὶ τοῦτο οὐκ ἐξ ὑμῶν, Θεοῦ τὸ δῶρον· οὐκ ἐξ ἔργων, ἵνα μὴ τις καυχῆσθαι. Αὐτοῦ γάρ ἐσμεν ποίημα, κτισθέντες ἐν Χριστῷ Ἰησοῦ ἐπὶ ἔργοις ἀγαθοῖς οἷς προποίμασεν ὁ Θεὸς ἵνα ἐν αὐτοῖς περιπατήσωμεν .

THE EPISTLE

Prokeimenon:

O Lord, save Your people, and bless Your inheritance.

Verse:

To You, O Lord, I cry; O my God.

The reading is from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians
(2:4-10)

Brethren, God who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), and raised us up with him, and made us sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith; and this is not your own doing, it is the gift of God: not because of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

ΤΟ ΕΥΑΓΓΕΛΙΟΝ

Ἐκ τοῦ κατὰ Λουκᾶν ἁγίου Εὐαγγελίου τὸ ἀνάγνωσμα

(12:16–21)

Εἶπεν ὁ Κύριος τὴν παραβολὴν ταύτην· Ἄνθρωπου τινὸς πλουσίου εὐφόρησεν ἡ χώρα· καὶ διελογίζετο ἐν ἑαυτῷ λέγων· τί ποιήσω, ὅτι οὐκ ἔχω ποῦ συνάξω τοὺς καρπούς μου; καὶ εἶπε· τοῦτο ποιήσω· καθελῶ μου τὰ ἀποθήκας καὶ μείζονας οἰκοδομήσω, καὶ συνάξω ἐκεῖ πάντα τὰ γεννήματά μου καὶ τὰ ἀγαθὰ μου, καὶ ἐρῶ τῇ ψυχῇ μου· ψυχὴ, ἔχεις πολλὰ ἀγαθὰ κείμενα εἰς ἔτη πολλά· ἀναπαύου, φάγε, πίε, εὐφραίνου. εἶπε δὲ αὐτῷ ὁ Θεός· ἄφρον, ταύτη τῇ νυκτὶ τὴν ψυχὴν σου ἀπαιτοῦσιν ἀπὸ σοῦ· ἃ δὲ ἠτοίμασας τί νί ἔσται; οὕτως ὁ θησαυρίζων ἑαυτῷ καὶ μὴ εἰς Θεὸν πλουτῶν. Ταῦτα λέγων ἐφώνει· Ὁ ἔχων ὦτα ἀκούειν, ἀκουέτω .

THE GOSPEL

The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Luke

(12:16–21)

The Lord said this parable: “The land of a rich man brought forth plentifully; and he thought to himself, ‘What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?’ And he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns, and build larger ones; and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, ‘Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.’ But God said to him, ‘Fool! This night your soul is required of you; and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’ So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.” As he said these things, he cried out: “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

DANCE UPDATE

GREEK DANCE MINISTRY

We extend our gratitude and congratulations to all our Greek Dancers who performed so majestically at this year's Greek Festival to the delight of all in attendance. We especially thank our Greek Dance Teachers who spent countless hours in preparation for this major fundraising event by ensuring that our youth were well prepared. As our Greek Dance Teachers are all volunteers, we are extremely grateful to them for their many years of dedication and love for Greek Dance, but especially for their efforts in educating our young people in the timeless traditions of our Hellenic Heritage.

As with all parish ministries, from time to time, we evaluate them and always try to improve them for the betterment of all involved. Having received much constructive feedback during the last several months, we believe that the time has come for our Greek Dance Ministry to be evaluated and reviewed for improvement across the board. Greek Dance is one of our more popular youth ministries and it is simply time to expand and improve upon the already successful program.

Therefore, we are comprising a NEW Greek Dance Committee that will review our Greek Dance Ministry in its entirety (Guidelines, Teachers, Dances, etc.). If you have experience in the area of Greek Dance/Music and are interested in EITHER serving as a member of the new Greek Dance Committee AND/OR being a Greek Dance Teacher, please contact Fr. George, either by email (frgeorge@gocslc.org) or by phone/text (732-232-1036) no later than November 30, 2022.

We hope to commence our new Greek Dance Ministry in the New Year 2023 – more information will be forthcoming once the new Greek Dance Committee has met!

MESSAGE FROM THE PC PRESIDENT

Beloved Parishioners,

Our Fall General Assembly is this Sunday, Nov 20th, 2 p.m. at Holy Trinity. On the agenda will be some important items that will require voting by the membership. One specific item of business will be an amendment in our by-laws on the number of paid stewards that must be present at a GA to vote on encumbering church property, currently, 2/3 of paid stewards are required. The by-laws are the governing document in our parish, and I cannot stress enough the importance of your presence on this vote. This meeting is very important for the future of our parish so please plan to come and voice your opinion.

See you all on Sunday,

George Karahalios

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

The Thanksgiving Celebration will be upon us soon. As we close in on this very important holiday let “Gratitude guide your Attitude”.

Most of us have so much to be thankful for each and every day. Don’t wait for one day in November to show your gratitude to God for all the blessings in your life. Show your appreciation for daily blessing of shelter, clothing, food, health, and the many loved ones to share these with. Stewardship can be expressed with your Time, Treasure, and Talent.

Now is a good time to make sure you have pledged and are current on your 2022 Stewardship. Not only will you help support the many ministries in our community, it will allow you to vote in our upcoming elections for the Parrish Council as well as for the very important decisions surrounding the Campus Project at Holy Trinity.

Another way to complement your Stewardship is to run for the Parrish Council. This is a very important role that leads and directs the daily life of our Parrish. Each year we need 15 dedicated Parishioners to commit to this fulfilling and important responsibility.

We wish you a Blessed Thanksgiving and hope to see you in church.

STEWARDSHIP FACTS & FIGURES

Cost to operate our community each day: $3800 daily

Target goal for each Steward/Family: $2500 yearly

There will be NO Divine Liturgy at Prophet Elias Church on this Sunday so that we may come together as one Community Family to welcome His Grace. A celebratory Fellowship Hour will follow the Divine Liturgy.

BYLAWS COMMITTEE

Proposed modifications for the definition of Quorum November 2022

Background

This Bylaws Committee was assembled at the request of the Parish Council in late October 2022

Bylaws Committee: Dimitri Gerontis, Marina Gianoulis, Kostas Katsohirakis, Harry Souvall, Jeannine Timothy.

What we are attempting to do:

Definition - Bylaws are the rules and procedures adopted by an organization for the government of its members and the regulation of its affairs. As an organization grows and develops, modifications to the bylaws become necessary to meet the organization's current needs regarding internal processes as well as voting, meetings and elections.

The Parish Board has determined our parish needs an amendment to our existing local parish Bylaws to modify the definition of a quorum necessary to vote on any transaction related to the purchase, sale or encumbrance of real property. The Board has asked this committee to present two amendment options which the parish will consider and, ultimately, vote upon.

Why we are doing this now:

It has been fifty years since our parish bylaws were last updated. The Parish Board seeks to amend our bylaws with an updated procedure to determine the quorum required for all votes pertaining to real property transactions. As always, all updated bylaws will conform with the Uniform Parish Regulations (UPRs).

This committee's goal is to develop two options to modify the definition of a quorum for all parish projects related to the purchase, sale or encumbrance of real property. Consequently, we looked to our own parish data to determine what number of votes we need, on any and every real property transaction presented at our general and special assemblies, to achieve an equitable parish vote.

We have researched the following data points:

- Average number of members in good standing who have attended and voted at each of the past fall General Assemblies over the past 5 years. 80-130
- Average number of members in good standing who have voted at Parish Board elections over the past 5 years. 250-300
- Approximate number of Steward Families at the end of 2021. 600
- Approximate number of Stewards eligible to vote. 850

Current definition of quorum:

A quorum shall number fifty (50) members in good standing for all regular and special parish assemblies. If a quorum is not present, the Parish Assembly may be called a second time within twenty-one days. As such time decisions may be taken by the number of members present with the exception of matters pertaining to the purchase, sale or encumbering of Parish real property in which two-thirds of all members in good standing will constitute a quorum.

Source - 1: Amended Articles of Incorporation (1974), Article VI – Parish Assembly (e)

Source - 2: The By-Laws of the Greek Orthodox Church of Greater Salt Lake (1974), By-Law 8 (d)

Recommendations

The committee made certain recommendations. These were modified by the Parish Council to the following:

Option 1

(A) For transactions involving the purchase, sale or encumbrance of real property less than or equal to $1,000,000 in value, the quorum shall consist of 50 members in good standing at a Parish Assembly.

(B) For transactions greater than $1,000,000 in value, the quorum shall consist of 200 members in good standing at a Parish Assembly called for that purpose.

If a quorum is not present for (B), the Parish Assembly may be called a second time within twenty-one days. The parish shall send a certified letter to all members in good standing notifying them of this second assembly. At such time, a decision may be taken so long as there is a quorum of 50 members in good standing at the Parish Assembly. Only members who were eligible to vote in the first assembly will be eligible to vote in the second assembly.

Explanation of Option 1

The choice of a number instead of a percentage is to provide for the same system (set number) as has been used for all regular and special Parish Assemblies in the past. It is easy to count those present with a voting card. The higher number was chosen to recognize the importance of a greater number of members for important decisions without being so high as to make it difficult to conduct business. The number of 200 was chosen because attendance at fall assemblies has been between 80 and 130 and people voting in parish elections has been between 250 and 300. The number of 200 is an average of the two. The second assembly was lowered to the regular quorum so that the parish is able to conduct necessary business, should it not reach the 200-member threshold. The provision not allowing new voting members between assemblies is meant to encourage everyone wanting to vote to become a member in good standing at the first assembly.

Option 2

(A) For transactions involving the purchase, sale, or encumbrance of real property less than or equal to $1,000,000 in value, the quorum shall consist of 50 members in good standing at a Parish Assembly.

(B) For transactions greater than $1,000,000 in value, the quorum shall consist of two-thirds (2/3) of the number of Steward Families from the most recent year in good standing at a Parish Assembly

If a quorum is not present for (B), the Parish Assembly may be called a second time within twenty-one days. The parish shall send a certified letter to all members in good standing notifying them of this second assembly. At such time, a decision may be taken so long as there is a quorum of 200 members in good standing at the Parish Assembly.

Explanation of Option 2

Smaller transactions by definition have very limited impact on the life of our community, and they are transactional in nature typically involving the sale of a small piece of property that was donated to our parish. It seems reasonable to expect that we execute "ordinary-course" transactions with a smaller quorum. However, larger transactions will have an enormous impact on the life of our community, with considerations that will affect us, our children, and their children long into the future. As a consequence, we owe it to ourselves to maintain a rigorous threshold for a quorum. The quorum should constitute a community-wide effort to approve large and complicated transactions versus major decisions being made by a small number of voting Stewards (minority). For large, complicated, impactful transactions we have a responsibility to ourselves to ensure broad-based attendance at such a voting Parish Assembly. We have many communication methods at our disposal, including word-of-mouth, old-fashioned phone trees, and advanced social media. As our community has demonstrated in recent years, we draw large numbers of attendees at our Festival, at weddings, at celebrations honoring clergy, and at other community-wide events. Stewards who live out-of-town have demonstrated a willingness and an ability to attend such events. A strong turnout and attendance should likewise be expected for proposed transactions that will impact our community for generations to come.

Definitions

1. “Steward Families” shall mean any family or individual making a fair share pledge
2. “Number of Steward Families” shall be provided by the Church Office/Parish Council Treasurer once a year, at the end of every calendar year, for that year. i.e., no later than December 21, 2021, for calendar year 2021, no later than December 31, 2022, for calendar year 2022, etc
3. “Voting Stewards” shall mean any individual eligible to vote at a Parish Assembly or at Parish Elections

1. Husband, wife, three children, ages 15, 19, 26
One Steward Family, two members in good standing (two votes)
2. Single person, age > 18
